Written Testimony This is what the obsession for the rail project has come to. By passing this bill you are telling the citizens of the city and county of Honolulu that you are willing and able to bankrupt the citizens in order to build the rail. The city council needs to search their souls to make sure this is what you want to tell us. You are willing and able to greatly reduce all other functions of the city, raise property taxes (which raises rents) in order for rail to be built. Is that what you are voting to do?
